2013 Short Course Duathlon Worlds Qualification Process

2013 Qualification

- At the 2013 qualifying events, athletes will qualify for the 2013 Short Course Duathlon World Championships in Ottawa, Canada (August 10-11, 2013). Qualifying races and their specific qualification opportunities include:

    - Double Oak Duathlon (Standard Distance: 10k Run, 40k Bike, 5k Run); April 6, 2013 in Pelham, Alabama
      Qualification: The top six finishers in each age group (rolling to 10th place) in the standard event will qualify for Team USA for the Short Course Duathlon World Championship

    - Orange County Duathlon (Standard Distance: 2k Run, 40k Bike, 10k Run); May 19, 2013 in Mission Viejo, California
      Qualification: The top six finishers in each age group (rolling to 10th place) will qualify for Team USA in their choice of race distance — short course- or sprint-distance, but not both

    - Apple Duathlon (Standard Distance: 5k Run, 33k Bike, 5k Run); May 25, 2013 in Sartell, Minnesota
      Qualification: The top six finishers in each age group (rolling to 10th place) will qualify for Team USA in their choice of race distance — short course- or sprint-distance, but not both

- Athletes must pay a $50 non-refundable deposit to hold their 2013 Worlds slot by the date given by USA Triathlon.

- Age group winners will have two weeks to pay the $50 non-refundable deposit and hold their slot on Team USA once USAT has contacted them via email. If the age group winner declines a Worlds slot, the roll down process will begin. The roll down athlete will be given a one week deadline from the deadline date of the age group winner.

- Once ITU announces the entry fee for the World Championship all athletes who registered and paid the $50 non-refundable deposit will then need to pay the ITU entry fee by the deadline given by USA Triathlon.

Process for accepting your slot on Team USA

- Athletes must express their intent to be on Team USA during the awards ceremony at the Duathlon National Championship by visiting the Team USA table during the awards ceremony. Please note: By simply expressing your intent to be on Team USA, you have not officially accepted your slot on Team USA.

- USAT will follow up with an email within a week of the Duathlon National Championship instructing automatic qualifiers on how to pay the $50 non-refundable deposit to hold their Team USA slot.  Athletes must go to the designated registration link provided in the email by the specified deadline to officially hold his/her slot on Team USA.

- Roll down athletes will also be e-mailed and informed of their position on the roll down list.

- Any athlete who neglects to follow these instructions and does not meet the deadlines may face the consequences of losing his/her slot on Team USA.

Continued…..

- If a qualified athlete does not receive an email (possibly due to spam protection or other technical difficulties), be sure to email Team USA at teamusa@usatriathlon.org or call 719.955.2818.

- When an athlete has registered, paid the $50 non-refundable deposit, and received confirmation, he/she has officially held his/her slot on Team USA.

- When ITU announces the exact entry fee for the World Championships, USAT will then email the athletes who officially held his/her slot and inform them of how to officially accept his/her Team USA slot by paying the ITU entry fee.
  Once an athlete pays the ITU entry fee he/she will officially be a member of Team USA.
