2013 Long Course Duathlon Qualification Process

2013 Qualification

- At the 2013 Long Course Duathlon Nationals, the top 18 in each age group rolling down to 25th place, will qualify for the 2013 Long Course Duathlon World Championships in Zofingen, Switzerland (September 8, 2013).

- Athletes must pay a $50 non-refundable deposit to hold their 2013 Worlds slot by the date given by USA Triathlon.

- Age group winners will have two weeks to pay the $50 non-refundable deposit and hold their slot on Team USA once USAT has contacted them via email. If the age group winner declines a Worlds slot, the roll down process will begin. The roll down athlete will be given a one week deadline from the deadline date of the age group winner.

- Once ITU announces the entry fee for the World Championship all athletes who registered and paid the $50 non-refundable deposit will then need to pay the ITU entry fee by the deadline given by USA Triathlon.

Process for accepting your slot on Team USA

- USAT will follow up with an email within a week of the Long Course Duathlon Nationals instructing automatic qualifiers on how to pay the $50 non-refundable deposit to hold their Team USA slot.
   Athletes must go to the designated registration link provided in the email by the specified deadline to officially hold his/her slot on Team USA.

- Roll down athletes will also be e-mailed and informed of their position on the roll down list.

- Any athlete who neglects to follow these instructions and does not meet the deadlines may face the consequences of losing his/her slot on Team USA.

- If a qualified athlete does not receive an email (possibly due to spam protection or other technical difficulties), be sure to email Team USA at teamusa@usatriathlon.org or call 719.955.2818.
