Rocky Mountain Region

To continue promoting growth of triathlon and multisport in the Rocky Mountain Region, support and initiatives in several key areas are crucial. These areas include Youth and Junior Talent ID, certification of Race Directors and Officials, Race Director sanction compliance, emergence of Paratriathlon, and membership value recognition among current USAT annual members as well conversion of single-day members.

As an active triathlete and USAT-certified Level II Race Director, I understand the current needs of both athletes and event producers. My work is to continue to improve the methods, procedures, and governance as they relate to USAT members in the Rocky Mountain Region. When issues arise from the USAT National Office, I take my duty seriously to evaluate the potential impact on our members in Colorado, El Paso (TX), New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming.

During the past 2+ years on the Regional Council including as Chairman, I have launched several initiatives to support key programs, resulting in grants totaling several thousands of dollars. As your Rocky Mountain council representative, I pledge to continue my work on identifying key areas in need of our support, and look forward to continue representing the Rocky Mountain Region on USA Triathlon issues.
