

Welcome to Nancy!

Nancy is famous all over the world for its fine architecture: “Place Stanislas”, “Place Carrière” and “Place d’Alliance” are included in the Unesco’s World Heritage list since 1983.

Entirely renovated and now pedestrian area, more beautiful than ever, Place Stanislas is considered as one of the most beautiful plazas worldwide.

“Place Stanislas” renovation ended by May 2005: The original light color cobbling with its black diagonals structuring the space was reproduced. The gilts on the gates of the Stanislas Plaza, Stanislas statue, all decorative elements were finely restored to allow everyone to fully enjoy that architectural jewel from the XVIIIth century.

Nancy is also the right place for gourmets! Specialties and local products made Nancy famous: everybody knows the “bergamote” and the delicious “macaron”, as well as the “quiche Lorraine” and the delicate and rare fruit “Mirabelle”. You should also discover and taste numerous other regional and local recipes, often illustrated by stories and anecdotes which are increasing their savour.

With its opera, ballet, symphonic and lyric orchestra, its drama centre, Nancy is a city of national stature where culture and arts are part of everyday’s life.

There are also three universities with 45 000 students and researchers. With 330 000 inhabitants, the greater Nancy is a lively expending area.

Nancy is also an attractive city, a green town investing in sustainable development, so a place where everybody can enjoy a real way of life.

Culture, art, walks, science, botany, good food and entertainment, Nancy offers all that you have ever dreamed of!
